[0] Obituary Notice / Notice nécrologique*IN MEMORIAM SALLY BELINDA PARMINTER HAAG (19 MAY 1937 – 18 JULY 2013)

From Sheila Ager

The Department of Classical Studies at the University of Waterloo was saddened this summer by the death of our long-time colleague and friend, Sally Haag. Sally had been a member of Classical Studies at Waterloo since the 1960s, long before Classical Studies became an independent department; she retired in 1996. A true philologist, with a great love of languages, Sally was a dedicated and inspiring teacher whose abilities were recognized by the University in 1993 when she received the Distinguished Teacher Award. Her devotion to pedagogy was also evident in the extensive work she did with the Teaching Resources and Continuing Education office (TRACE, now the Centre for Teaching Excellence).

Sally was a true advocate of lifelong learning, and much of her teaching at Waterloo addressed the needs and interests of off-campus and mature students. Sally herself pursued higher learning throughout her life, alongside her professional career and into retirement. Only a month before she passed away, Sally graduated from the University of Waterloo with an Honours Bachelor's degree in German, with an Italian minor, which she proudly added to her other degrees in Classics and English Literature.

For those who might wish to make a donation in Sally's memory, her favourite charities were: Planned Parenthood, United Way, Opportunity International, CARE Canada, UNHCR UN Refugee Agency, and the Stephen Lewis Foundation.

CAC 2014 ANNUAL MEETING — CALL FOR PAPERS

The Annual Meeting of the Classical Association of Canada (CAC) will be held at McGill University in Montreal, May 6 to 9, 2014. The program committee is inviting proposals for paper presentations. In addition to submissions from individual speakers, we solicit proposals for panels from research networks and sponsored research teams that wish to present their collaborative work. Proposals from graduate students (PhD) should include a supporting letter from their supervisor.

Proposals should be sent to the chair of the program committee at cac2014@mcgill.ca, indicating the following reference in the subject line: Paper Proposal, Name (or: Panel Proposal, Name of the responsible panel contact). The submission deadline for proposals is January 15, 2014. In an ongoing effort to ensure a high quality of contributions, all submissions will undergo the process of double blind review.

Nota bene: The CAC conference will be held in conjunction with the Annual Meeting of the Association of Ancient Historians (AAH), which will run in part in parallel with the CAC, from May 8 to 11. A joint keynote address is scheduled for May 8, 2014.

CONGRÈS ANNUEL DE LA SCÉC 2014 — APPEL À COMMUNICATIONS

Le congrès annuel de la Société canadienne des études classiques (SCÉC) aura lieu à l'Université McGill, à Montréal, du 6 au 9 mai 2014. Le comité responsable de l'organisation lance un appel à communications. En plus des soumissions pour des présentations individuelles, nous sollicitons aussi des suggestions de séances de la part de groupes de recherche commandités qui souhaiteraient présenter le fruit de leur travail collectif. Les soumissions provenant de candidat(e)s au doctorat doivent inclure une lettre d'approbation de la part du directeur ou de la directrice de recherche.

Les soumissions peuvent être envoyées au directeur du comité d'organisation à l'adresse suivante : cac2014@mcgill.ca. Veuillez inclure les informations suivantes dans le titre de votre message : Titre de la présentation, Nom (ou : titre de la séance, Nom de la personne responsable pour la séance). La date limite de soumission est le 15 janvier 2014. Dans le but d'assurer la qualité des présentations, toutes les propositions seront soumises à une double évaluation anonyme.

Nota bene : Le congrès de la SCEC aura lieu conjointement avec celui de l'Association of Ancient Historians (AAH) qui se déroulera en partie en même temps, soit du 8 au 11 mai. Un discours d'ouverture pour les deux conférences est prévu le 8 mai 2014.

[NDLR: Le congrès de l'AAH est annoncé dans la section [4] ci-dessous.]

[4] Conferences & Lectures; Calls for Papers / Conférences; appels à communications

CALL FOR PAPERS
ASSOCIATION OF ANCIENT HISTORIANS 2014 ANNUAL MEETING
McGILL UNIVERSITY, MONTREAL, 8–11 MAY 2014

From Michael Fronda

The organizers expect to hold eight sessions for the presentation of scholarly papers, organized around the following themes. Each speaker will have 30 minutes. It should be noted that this is a preliminary schedule; depending on the proposals submitted and accepted, some of the themes may change, and paper and panel lengths may be extended or shortened. The 2014 AAH meeting will be held in coordination with the 2014 Annual General Meeting of the Classical Association of Canada. It will be possible to register for, attend and participate in both meetings. Please check the conference website (<https://www.mcgill.ca/classics/cac-aah2014>), for more information on registration and accommodations, as it becomes available. Direct any questions to the local organizer, Michael Fronda (aah2014@mcgill.ca).

- Greek History: Beyond Athens and Sparta—Local Histories in ancient Greece
- Roman History: Early Rome
- Late Antiquity: Frontiers and Borderlands in Late Antiquity
- Greek Historiography: Perception and Emotion in Greek Historiography
- Roman Historiography: The Intersection of Poetry and History
- Performance, Social Rituals, and Political Power in Classical Antiquity
- Greek and Roman Religion (open theme)

- Classical Archaeology (open theme)

Abstracts for proposed papers should be sent via email to aah2014@mcgill.ca by November 15, 2013. Please limit abstracts to 500 words, with concise in-text citations; attach as a PDF (preferable), .doc or .rtf.

CALL FOR PAPERS: THE SECOND CANADIAN COLLOQUIUM FOR ANCIENT PHILOSOPHY

MAY 2–4, 2014

UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

APPEL À COMMUNICATIONS: DEUXIÈME COLLOQUE CANADIEN DE PHILOSOPHIE ANCIENNE

2–4 MAI 2014

From the Organizers of the Second Canadian Colloquium for Ancient Philosophy

[La version française suit l'anglaise]

The University of British Columbia warmly invites the submission of proposals in either French or English for individual papers and poster presentations for the Second Canadian Colloquium for Ancient Philosophy. We invite submissions in all areas of Ancient Philosophy, and we welcome submissions from graduate and postgraduate students.

The list of confirmed speakers and roundtable presenters includes

- Hugh Benson (University of Oklahoma)
- Margaret Cameron (University of Victoria)
- Christopher Framarin (University of Calgary)
- Doug Hutchinson (University of Toronto)
- Lloyd P. Gerson (University of Toronto)
- Annie Larivée (Carleton University)
- Monte Ransome Johnson (University of California, San Diego)
- Jean-Marc Narbonne (Laval University)

For individual papers (with a presentation time of up to 30 minutes), please submit a paper of around 3000 words. For poster presentations, please submit an abstract (including a title) of about 300–500 words.

Papers and abstracts should be prepared for blind review. In an email message to which your proposal is attached please include your name, academic affiliation and postal address. Please also indicate whether you would like to serve as a commentator if your proposal is not accepted. Those who would like to be considered solely as commentators are also invited to contact the organizers.

Papers and abstracts must be received by January 17, 2014 to be considered for the colloquium. The selection panel will notify those who submitted of its decision within two weeks. Please email your submissions (in .rtf, .doc, .pdf format) to ccap-ccpa-2014@ancientphilosophy.ca.

Submission guidelines

Individual papers:

Please send your paper (around 3000 words, and include a title) to ccap-ccpa-2014@ancientphilosophy.ca by January 17, 2014. In an email message to which your paper is attached please include your name, institutional affiliation and preferred postal address. Please also indicate whether you would like to serve as a commentator if your proposal is not accepted. You will be notified by the end of January of the status of your proposal. Successful candidates will be allotted a 50-minute time slot, comprising a 30-minute presentation, a 10-minute commentary by an appointed speaker, and discussion with the audience. Presentations can be summaries of longer papers, and papers will be distributed in advance.

Poster presentations:

Posters provide an opportunity to present and discuss your work (research project, PhD topic) in a more informal setting (either during the poster session and or at other times during the conference), and allow authors and interested participants to connect and engage in discussion about the presented work. There will be two scheduled sessions during which presenters will be expected to stand by their posters and discuss their work. Posters should be 24 inches (60 centimeters) high by 36 inches (90 centimeters) wide.

Although the presentation will be in the form of a poster, the submission itself should be in the form of an abstract describing the work. Please send your abstract (300–500 words, include a title) to ccap-ccpa-2014@ancientphilosophy.ca by January 17, 2014. In an email message to which your proposal is attached please include your name, institutional affiliation and preferred postal address. Please also indicate whether you would like to serve as a commentator if your proposal is not accepted. You will be notified by the end of January of the status of your proposal.

All submissions:

If electronic submission is impossible, please mail to:

Queries and suggestions welcome: ccap-ccpa@ancientphilosophy.ca.

:::::::::: :::::: :::: : :: :::: ::::::

Pour le Deuxième Colloque Canadien de Philosophie Ancienne, l'Université de Colombie-Britannique invite les propositions de contribution, en français ou en anglais, sous forme soit de communications individuelles ou de présentations affichées (posters). Toute proposition de contribution soumise relevant de la philosophie ancienne sera examinée.

La liste des invités, pour des conférences individuelles ou des tables rondes, comprend:

- Hugh Benson (University of Oklahoma)
- Margaret Cameron (University of Victoria)
- Christopher Framarin (University of Calgary)
- Doug Hutchinson (University of Toronto)
- Lloyd P. Gerson (University of Toronto)
- Annie Larivée (Carleton University)
- Monte Ransome Johnson (University of California, San Diego)
- Jean-Marc Narbonne (Laval University)

Pour les communications individuelles (comprenant un temps de présentation de 30 minutes), veuillez soumettre un texte (avec titre) d'environ 3 000 mots. Pour les présentations affichées, veuillez soumettre un résumé (avec titre) de 300 à 500 mots.

Toutes les soumissions doivent être présentées en vue d'une évaluation strictement anonyme, c'est pourquoi, dans le courriel auquel sera jointe votre proposition, vous devez inscrire vos informations personnelles (nom, affiliation institutionnelle adresse postale). Veuillez préciser aussi, dans l'éventualité que votre contribution ne serait pas retenue, si vous seriez disposé à présenter un commentaire d'une des communications. Ceux et celles qui désirent présenter exclusivement un commentaire, doivent s'adresser aux organisateurs.

Les textes et les résumés devront être soumis, par courriel, au plus tard le 17 janvier 2014. Le comité d'évaluation vous avisera de sa décision au plus tard deux semaines après cette date. S'il vous plaît, veuillez soumettre votre proposition (en format rtf, doc ou pdf) au ccap-ccpa-2014@ancientphilosophy.ca.

Format de soumission

Communications Individuelles:

Veuillez envoyer s'il vous plaît votre texte (around 3 000 mots, accompagné d'un titre) au ccap-ccpa-2014@ancientphilosophy.ca, au plus tard le 17 janvier 2014. Dans le courriel comprenant votre proposition jointe, inscrivez votre nom, affiliation institutionnelle et adresse postal. S'il vous plaît, indiquez également si vous souhaitez présenter un commentaire sur l'une des présentations, dans le cas où votre proposition n'était pas retenue. Le comité d'évaluation vous avisera du statut de votre soumission avant la fin de janvier. Si votre soumission est acceptée, vous disposerez en tout d'une période de 50 minutes, ce qui comprend votre présentation de 30 minutes, un commentaire de 10 minutes par un participant désigné et une discussion avec le public de 10 minutes également. Les présentations individuelles peuvent être un résumé détaillé d'un texte intégral; la version intégrale seront distribuées à l'avance.

Présentations affichées (posters):

Les présentations affichées offrent l'occasion de faire connaître et de discuter votre recherche dans un cadre moins formel (durant la session des exposés et à d'autres moments durant le colloque). Ces présentations permettent de créer des liens entre les auteurs et les autres participants, et elles constituent des points de départ pour la discussion sur leurs recherches respectives. Durant le colloque, il y aura deux périodes réservées aux présentations affichées. Les dimensions matérielles des présentations affichées devraient être d'environ 60 cm de hauteur par 90 cm de largeur.

Même si ces présentations seront affichées, votre soumission doit être envoyée sous forme de court résumé décrivant votre thématique de recherche. Veuillez s'il vous plaît envoyer votre résumé de 300 à 500 mots au ccap-ccpa-2014@ancientphilosophy.ca au plus tard le 17 janvier 2014. Dans le courriel auquel sera jointe votre proposition, inscrivez votre nom, affiliation institutionnelle et adresse postale. S'il vous plaît, indiquez aussi si vous souhaiteriez présenter un commentaire sur une des présentations, dans le cas où votre proposition n'était pas retenue. Le comité d'évaluation vous avisera du statut de votre soumission avant la fin janvier.

Toutes soumissions:

S'il n'est pas possible d'envoyer votre soumission par courriel, veillez l'envoyer par la poste à:

Michael Griffin

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS: NEO-LATIN TEXTS IN THE AMERICAS AND EUROPE
SPONSORED BY THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FOR NEO-LATIN STUDIES
(APA 2015 — NEW ORLEANS)

From Roger S. Fisher

The AANLS invites proposals for a panel of papers (organized by Roger S. Fisher, York University) on current research in Neo-Latin texts in the Americas and Europe to be held at the meeting of the American Philological Association (APA) in New Orleans in early January 2015. Our intent is to illustrate the diversity and richness of Neo-Latin Studies; to underscore the importance of contemporary research in the complex, international phenomenon of Neo-Latin literature; and to give scholars an opportunity to share the results of their research and their methodologies with colleagues in the many disciplines that comprise Neo-Latin studies.

We welcome papers on all aspects of the study of literary, historical, scholarly, legal, scientific and technical works written in Latin in the Renaissance and early Modern Period (to about 1800); we will also consider proposals dealing with more recent Neo-Latin.

Abstracts should be sent (and arrive no later than midnight EST on February 15, 2014) to Professor Roger S. Fisher, preferably electronically to rfisher@yorku.ca, or by mail to Professor Roger S. Fisher, Department of Humanities, Vanier College 262, York University, 4700 Keele Street, Toronto, ON M3J 1P3 Canada. Abstracts should be a maximum of 650 words (not including a brief bibliography).

In accordance with APA regulations, all abstracts for papers will be read anonymously by three outside readers. Please follow the instructions for the format of individual abstracts that appear in the October APA newsletter. In your cover letter or e-mail, please confirm that you are an APA member in good standing, with dues paid through 2014.

[5] Scholarships & Competitions / Bourses et concours

THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY AND DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICAL, NEAR EASTERN & RELIGIOUS STUDIES
TWO MA FELLOWSHIPS IN ANCIENT PHILOSOPHY

From Michael Griffin

The University of British Columbia invites applications for two (2) two-year MA fellowships in Ancient Philosophy available from 1 September 2014, to be held either in the Department of Classical, Near Eastern, and Religious Studies or in the Department of Philosophy. In addition to normal funding through teaching assistantships (with remuneration up to around C$11,000 per annum), each fellowship is expected to carry a stipend of C$10,000 per annum for up to two years. The fellowships may be held while pursuing any one of the following three degrees: the MA in Classics; the MA in Philosophy; or the MA in Ancient Culture, Religion, and Ethnicity. Further information concerning admissions and available programs of study is available through the Department of Philosophy (www.philosophy.ubc.ca) and the Department of Classical, Near Eastern, and Religious Studies (www.cnrs.ubc.ca); a list of research faculty and projects in ancient philosophy at UBC is also available at <http://ancientphilosophy.arts.ubc.ca>.

Applications are welcomed from students with interests in all areas of ancient philosophy, particularly those with a prospective research focus in the Platonic and Aristotelian philosophical traditions of the ancient Mediterranean world. Applicants will ideally possess some proficiency in at least one ancient philosophical language (such as Greek or Latin). Applicants interested in cross-cultural philosophy are also encouraged; UBC conducts active research in Greek and Roman, Indian, and Chinese philosophical traditions.

Successful applicants will also work as assistants with the Ancient Commentators project, jointly directed from 2013 by Prof. Richard Sorabji (King's College London and Oxford University) and Prof. Michael Griffin (University of British Columbia). Founded in 1985, the project aims to translate the principal Greek commentaries on Aristotle into English for the first time (along with a number of related philosophical texts from late antiquity). For details of the project, see <http://www.ancientcommentators.org.uk>.

Please contact Michael Griffin (michael.griffin@ubc.ca) for further details.

STUDY IN GREECE ASCSA PROGRAMS AND FELLOWSHIPS 2014–2015

From Mary Darlington

The American School of Classical Studies at Athens, one of America's most distinguished centers devoted to advanced teaching and research, was founded in 1881 to provide American graduate students and scholars a base for their studies in the history and civilization of the Greek world. Today, over 130 years later, it is still a teaching institution, providing graduate students a unique opportunity to study firsthand the sites and monuments of Greece. The School is also a superb resource for senior scholars pursuing research in many fields ranging from prehistoric to modern Greece, thanks to its internationally renowned libraries, the Blegen, focusing on all aspects of Greece from its earliest prehistory to late antiquity, and the Gennadius, which concentrates on the Greek world after the end of antiquity.

Membership application to the ASCSA must be made online at <http://www.ascsa.edu.gr> at the same time you apply to any outside funding organization for work at the School.

Please visit <http://www.ascsa.edu.gr/index.php/admission-membership/grants> for the following opportunities:

- Funding for graduate students for study at the ASCSA (full academic year)
- Funding for graduate students and postgraduates for study at the ASCSA (full academic year)
- Funding for graduate students or postgraduates for study at the ASCSA (short-term fellowships)
- Travelling and exchange fellowships for graduate students and postgraduate study
- Funding for senior scholars for study at the ASCSA

School programs are generally open to qualified students and scholars at colleges or universities in the U.S. or Canada; restrictions may apply for specific fellowships and programs. The American School of Classical Studies at Athens does not discriminate on the basis of race, age, sex, sexual orientation, color, religion, ethnic origin, or disability when considering admission to any form of membership.
