THE AMERICAN SCHOOL OF CLASSICAL STUDIES AT ATHENS ELIZABETH A. WHITEHEAD VISITING PROFESSORS One or Two Positions

From Mary Darlington

Deadline: October 31

Term: Early September to June 1.

Eligibility: A senior scholar with a significant record of publication and teaching in a North American institution and a member of the Managing Committee or faculty/staff from a Cooperating Institution. Preference will be given to those who have not received recent support from the School. Candidates who have held the Whitehead Professorship may apply if the previous term was at least five years prior.

Project: Advancing research on a project, which utilizes the facilities of the School and enriches the academic program of the School. Whitehead Professors are encouraged to present a seminar during the winter term (late November to late March) on the subject of their expertise and to contribute to the academic program in other significant ways, such as mentoring or advising students at the School and participating in School trips and excursions. Compensation: Stipend of $35,000, plus round-trip coach airfare to Athens, board at Loring Hall for the Whitehead Professor (one-half senior rate for spouse, and one-half student rate for dependents) and School housing. Hotel and transportation on all fall trips and transportation on all winter Attica excursions.

Application:

- Application: to be submitted online.
- Curriculum vitae including list of publications.
- Statement of current and projected research.
- One page description of proposed seminar and other contributions to the academic program.
- Account of the frequency and length of earlier visits to Greece.
- Three letters of recommendation to be sent directly to the address below or via email to application@ascsa.org.
- Applicants may be invited to an interview at the annual AIA/APA meetings or by telephone.

CALL FOR PAPERS: CACW UNIVERSITY OF WINNIPEG MARCH 6–7, 2015

From Allison Surtees

The CACW invites proposals for papers for its annual conference, to be held at the University of Winnipeg on March 6th–7th 2015. We invite paper and session proposals on aspects and topics that fit the theme of the conference: "The Ancient Community”.

This conference intends to consider all aspects of the ancient community, from village to city, culture to religion, and from the economy through to geography, while also examining relations between communities, between individuals within and outside them, and between communities and the state. Through the examination of these broad aspects, we intend to consider various themes that link ancient communities across time and place.

We welcome proposals for both individual paper (twenty minutes) and organized panel-sessions (three-five papers) from national and international scholars and graduate students. Abstracts for individual papers should not exceed 350 words; proposals for panel-sessions should not exceed 600 words. All submissions should be sent to the organizing committee, at CACW2015@icloud.com, no later than October 17, 2014. Following the deadline, all proposals will be peer-reviewed, and the decisions will be communicated by November 17, 2014. In order to facilitate and help prioritize the organizing committee’s responsibilities, please include the relevant heading in the subject line:

THE AMERICAN SCHOOL OF CLASSICAL STUDIES AT ATHENS THE M. ALISON FRANTZ FELLOWSHIP IN POST-CLASSICAL STUDIES AT THE GENNADIUS LIBRARY Deadline: January 15

From Mary Darlington

The M. Alison Frantz Fellowship, formerly know as the Gennadeion Fellow in Post-Classical Studies, was named in honor of photographer and archaeologist, M. Alison Frantz (1903–1995) whose photographs of antiquities are widely used in books on Greek culture.

The Frantz Fellowship is awarded to scholars whose fields of study are represented by the Gennadius Library in Athens, i.e. Late Antiquity, Byzantine Studies, post-Byzantine Studies, or Modern Greek Studies.

Eligibility: Ph.D. candidates and recent Ph.D.’s (up to five years) from a U.S. or Canadian institution. Successful candidates should demonstrate their need to work in the Gennadius Library.

Terms: A stipend of $11,500 plus room, board, and waiver of School fees. Fellows are expected to be in residence at the School for the full academic year from September 1 to June 1. A final report is due at the end of the award period, and the ASCSA expects that copies of all publications that result from research conducted as a Fellow of the ASCSA be contributed to the Gennadius Library of the School.

Application: Submit application for Associate Membership with fellowship, curriculum vitae, description of the proposed project, and three letters of reference online on the ASCSA web site at <http://www.ascsa.edu.gr/index.php/admission-membership/student-associate-membership>.

Web site: www.ascsa.edu.gr or <http://www.ascsa.edu.gr/index.php/admission-membership/grants>

E-mail: application@ascsa.org

The award will be announced by March 15.

UNIVERSITY OF WATERLOO STUDY TOUR TO GREECE, SPRING 2015

From Craig Hardiman

The Department of Classical Studies at the University of Waterloo (in conjunction with the Department of Anthropology) is pleased to announce a study tour to Greece in the Spring Term of 2015. The planned tour will focus primarily (but not exclusively) on the Bronze Age with travel to Crete, Santorini and the mainland. The course (CLAS 390/695) is open and available to any students registered at a Canadian University and can be taken for either undergraduate or graduate credit. The course normally runs for 15-20 days in mid-late May. For any further details on costs, itinerary or any other issues and interested inquiries, please click on this link and feel free to email Dr. Craig Hardiman (hardiman@uwaterloo.ca) of the Department of Classical Studies at the University of Waterloo.
