MEMORIAL UNIVERSITY DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS 8-MONTH TEACHING TERM APPOINTMENT

From Cathy Kieley

Memorial University of Newfoundland will make teaching term appointments in the Faculty of Arts, subject to budgetary approval and to sufficient enrolments, during the Spring and Fall semesters of 2016 and Winter semester of 2017. Departments and programs in the Faculty of Arts that may make such appointments are Anthropology, Classics, English, French & Spanish (including the Frecker program in Saint-Pierre), History, Philosophy, Political Science and Sociology. The minimum qualification for teaching term appointments is normally a completed doctoral degree in the discipline, though in some cases a master's degree in the discipline together with appropriate teaching experience may be an acceptable qualification. For further details on these appointments, please contact the head of the appropriate department. Please forward, by March 25, 2016, a curriculum vitae, evidence of effective teaching, and the names and addresses of three referees, to Dr. Lynne Phillips, Dean of Arts, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John's, Newfoundland, A1C 5S7.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority. Memorial University is committed to employment equity and encourages applications from qualified women and men, visible minorities, aboriginal people, and persons with disabilities.

Additional information: The Department of Classics invites applications for an 8-month teaching term appointment to begin September 1, 2016. The successful applicant will be expected to teach six courses (three per semester), including courses in mythology, Latin and/or Greek, and other Greek and Roman studies courses. In addition to the material specified above, please include with your application a sample syllabus for an advanced seminar course on a topic of your choice. For more information about the Department of Classics, please visit our website at <http://www.mun.ca/classics/>. If you have any questions about the position or application process, please contact Dr. Tana Allen (tallen@mun.ca).
