CAC CONFERENCE 2017 – DOCUMENTS FOR THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING CONGRÈS DE LA SCÉC 2017 – DOCUMENTS POUR L'ASSEMBLÉE GÉNÉRALE ANNUELLE

From Guy Chamberland

Please follow this link to view and download documents for the Annual General Meeting at Memorial University, May 11th, at 4:00 pm in Innovation Hall (IIC2001). If, by any chance, you have already downloaded some documents over the past week, please note that I have re-uploaded the Notices of Motions in two separate documents (one English and one French). As well, I had to make a small correction to the Minutes of the 2016 AGM, so you may want to download the latest version (posted Sunday April 16th).

Les documents pour la prochaine assemblée générale annuelle du 11 mai à l'Université Memorial sont disponibles en suivant ce lien vers la page du congrès sur le site de la Société. Si vous avez déjà téléchargé des documents au cours de la semaine passée, veuillez prendre note du fait que j'ai réaffiché les notices de motions en séparant les versions anglaise et française. La version française du procès verbal de l'assemblée de 2016 en est au stage de relecture et sera bientôt affichée.

CARLETON UNIVERSITY
HUMANITIES — GREEK & ROMAN STUDIES
TWO-YEAR APPOINTMENT IN THE ANCIENT GREEK WORLD

From Elizabeth Kennedy-Klaassen

The Greek and Roman Studies program at Carleton University invites applications for a two-year appointment at the rank of Instructor in the ancient Greek world to begin July 1, 2017.

We seek an outstanding scholar with a PhD in Classics and demonstrable excellence in teaching. The area of specialization is open, but preference may be given to candidates who work in the Hellenistic period. The successful candidate will be expected to teach a 3.5 full-course equivalent teaching load. Teaching responsibilities will include ancient Greek language, Greek civilization, and possibly the development of a course in medical/scientific terminology; however, the appointee will also have the opportunity to develop an advanced topics course in his or her area of expertise.

Greek and Roman Studies is housed in the College of the Humanities together with the Bachelor of Humanities program and the program in Religion. GRS offers a B.A. and minors in Greek and Roman Studies and Archaeology. The program is home to five faculty members and 65 majors. For more information on the program and the College, please see <https://carleton.ca/chum/>

A letter of application, a complete CV, a statement of teaching philosophy, and evidence of excellence in teaching should be sent electronically as one single PDF file to:

Dr. Shane Hawkins
Director of the College of the Humanities
shane.hawkins@carleton.ca

In addition, candidates should arrange for three letters of reference to be sent under separate cover. Candidates should be available for either on-campus or Skype-interviews. Applications will be reviewed starting May 12 and continue until the position is filled.

Please indicate in your application if you are a Canadian citizen or permanent resident of Canada.

Join our intellectual and collaborative community of scholars. Carleton University is a dynamic and innovative research and teaching institution with a nationally and internationally reputation as a leader in collaborative teaching and learning, research and governance. With over 28,000 students, 850 academic faculty, and 2,000 staff and more than 100 programs of study, we encourage creative risk-taking enabling minds to connect, discover and generate transformative knowledge. Located in Ottawa, Ontario, Canada's capital city has a population of almost one million and reflects the country's bilingual and multicultural character. Carleton's location in the nation's capital provides many opportunities for scholarship and research with groups and institutions that reflect the diversity of the country. To learn more about our University and the City of Ottawa, please visit www.carleton.ca/provost.

Carleton University is strongly committed to fostering diversity within its community as a source of excellence, cultural enrichment, and social strength. We welcome those who would contribute to the further diversification of our University including, but not limited to: women; visible minorities; First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples; persons with disabilities; and persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity and expressions.

Applicants selected for an interview are asked to contact the Chair of the Search Committee as soon as possible to discuss any accommodation requirements. Arrangements will be made in a timely manner.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. All positions are subject to budgetary approval.

CARLETON UNIVERSITY
HUMANITIES — GREEK & ROMAN STUDIES
TWO-YEAR APPOINTMENT IN ROMAN STUDIES

From Elizabeth Kennedy-Klaassen

The Greek and Roman Studies program at Carleton University invites applications for a two-year appointment at the rank of Instructor in an area of Roman Studies to begin July 1, 2017.

We seek an outstanding scholar with a PhD in Classics and demonstrable excellence in teaching. The area of specialization is open, but preference may be given to candidates who engage with some facet of Roman social history. The successful candidate will be expected to teach a 3.5 full-course equivalent teaching load. Teaching responsibilities will include Latin and a wide range of courses in Roman civilization and material culture, and possibly the development of a course in medical/scientific terminology; however, the appointee will also have the opportunity to develop an advanced topic course in his or her area of expertise.

Greek and Roman Studies is housed in the College of the Humanities together with the Bachelor of Humanities program and the program in Religion. CFP: THE COURTS OF PHILIP II AND ALEXANDER THE GREAT:
MONARCHY AND POWER IN ANCIENT MACEDONIA
University of Alberta, May 2–4, 2018

From Frances Pownall

This conference, to be held at the University of Alberta (Edmonton, Alberta, Canada) on May 2-4, 2018, will explore the transformative effects of the reigns of Philip II and Alexander the Great, who are seminal figures in the emergence of a court society that was highly influential upon later periods of history.

Proposals are welcome from all academic disciplines addressing any aspect of the courts of Philip and Alexander, including (but not limited to):

- kingship and the role of the king
- court institutions and dynamics
- the nature of royal authority
- royal self-fashioning and/or display
- interactions with the Greek world and Achaemenid Persia
- the Macedonian army
- the Macedonian elite
- legitimation and/or ideology
- the role of propaganda
- material culture
- the source tradition
- the divinity of Alexander
- the Alexander legend
- the image of Alexander (literary or artistic) from ancient times until the modern world
- the influence of the courts of Philip and Alexander

Papers should be approximately 20 minutes in length. Paper proposals should include a title, an abstract of c. 100-150 words, and a brief c.v., and must be submitted to Frances Pownall (frances.pownall@ualberta.ca) no later than May 15, 2017.

I look forward to welcoming colleagues near and far to the University of Alberta!
