THE DESMOND CONACHER SCHOLARSHIP
(Note: Eligibility and criteria have recently changed)
BOURSE DESMOND-CONACHER
(NB: Les critères d'admissibilité ont récemment changé)

From Allison Glazebrook

Call for applications — This scholarship is offered in memory of Desmond Conacher, formerly Professor of Classics at Trinity College, Toronto, Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada, and Honorary President of the Classical Association of Canada. The scholarship has been endowed through donations from his family, friends, colleagues, and universities with which he was associated. Its purpose is to assist and encourage a young scholar entering graduate studies in classics. The scholarship is administered by the Classical Association of Canada through its Awards Committee. One award of $2,500 is offered each year.

Eligibility and criteria — Applicants must be Canadian students (citizens or permanent residents) intending to enter the first year of graduate studies in a classics or similar programme at a Canadian university. Specializations within the general area of classics such as ancient history, ancient philosophy, and classical archaeology are eligible. The main criteria are academic achievement, professional promise, and an appropriate under-graduate preparation.

Application procedure — Completed applications should be sent electronically in pdf format by April 1st to Allison Glazebrook (aglazebrook@brocku.ca), CAC Awards Committee Chair.

See the website for details.

The award will be paid in September subject to confirmation that the winner has registered in an appropriate graduate program.

Further information — Questions should be addressed to the Awards Committee chair, Allison Glazebrook (aglazebrook@brocku.ca).

Cette bourse est offerte en mémoire de Desmond Conacher, ancien Professeur d'études classiques à Trinity College, Toronto, Membre de la Société royale du Canada et Président honoraire de la Société canadienne d'études classiques. La Fondation a été constituée grâce aux généreux dons de la famille, des amis et des collègues de D. Conacher, ainsi que des universités auxquelles il était affilié. Ses objectifs sont d'encourager et de soutenir financièrement un jeune étudiant entreprenant des études supérieures en études classiques au Canada. La Fondation est administrée par la Société canadienne d'études classiques et son Comité de sélection. Une bourse de 2500 $ est attribuée chaque année.

Critères d'admissibilité — Les candidats doivent être des étudiants canadiens (citoyens ou résidents reçus) sur le point de commencer la première année d'un programme de deuxième cycle en études classiques (ou l'équivalent) dans une université canadienne. Les divers domaines de spécialisation propres aux études classiques et anciennes, tels que l'histoire ancienne, la philosophie ancienne et l'archéologie, sont admissibles. Les principaux critères de sélection sont les réalisations académiques, les objectifs de carrière et les perspectives de succès, et le fait de posséder une formation de premier cycle pertinente.

Modalités de présentation — Les documents complétés devraient être envoyés en format pdf au plus tard le 1er avril à Allison Glazebrook (aglazebrook@brocku.ca), présidente du comité de sélection de la SCÉC

Pour plus de renseignements suivez ce lien.

La bourse sera versée en septembre, après confirmation que le récipiendaire a bien complété son inscription dans un programme d'études supérieures d'une université canadienne.

Informations — Les demandes d'informations supplémentaires devront être adressées par écrit à la Présidente du Comité de sélection, Allison Glazebrook (aglazebrook@brocku.ca)

LIMITED TERM APPOINTMENT IN CLASSICS
CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY
LTA — LATIN LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

From Catherine Bolton

The Department of Classics, Modern Languages and Linguistics at Concordia University in Montréal, Quebec, invites applications for a limited-term appointment in Classics with a specialization in Latin language and literature. The successful applicant will be required to also teach a variety of courses concerning the history of Ancient Greece and Rome. Applicants must have a Ph.D. in Classics and proven excellence in teaching.

Applications should consist of a cover letter, a current curriculum vitae, a statement of teaching philosophy/interests, and evidence of teaching effectiveness. The successful applicant must be qualified to teach at all undergraduate levels. Evidence of teaching effectiveness is the key attribute by which qualified candidates are ranked. Applicants should arrange for three letters of reference which address their qualifications for the announced position to be sent directly to:

Dr. Mark Hale, Chair
Department of Classics, Modern Languages and Linguistics
Concordia University
CMLL.Chair@concordia.ca (electronic applications only)

This position is subject to budgetary approval and need, and is full-time, normally at the rank of Lecturer or Assistant Professor beginning August 1, 2018 and ending May 14, 2019. Individuals holding limited-term appointments may be granted a subsequent appointment, given continued funding and need, as well as satisfactory job performance. Together, initial appointments and subsequent appointments may not exceed 36 months or a span of three consecutive years.

All inquiries should be directed to Dr. Hale at CMLL.Chair@concordia.ca. Applications should reach the Department no later than March 30, 2018.

For additional information, please visit the Concordia University Faculty of Arts and Science webpages and the Classics, Modern Languages and Linguistics webpages (web address above).

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply for this position; however, Canadians and Permanent Residents will be given priority. Concordia University is strongly committed to employment equity within its community, and to recruiting a diverse faculty and staff. The University encourages applications from all qualified candidates, including women, members of visible minorities, Indigenous persons, members of sexual minorities, persons with disabilities, and others who may contribute to diversification.
