

Classical Association of Canada COVID-19 Micro-grants Application Form

Instructions

Send the completed form to the CAC Treasurer, Dr. Craig Maynes (craig.maynes@ucalgary.ca). If you have questions about this form, your eligibility, or the eligibility of your expenses, please contact Dr. Jessica Romney (romneyj2@macewan.ca).

Eligible applicants must be members in good-standing of the Association; they must be members in the “Regular Member, earning less than $40,000” or Student Member categories.

Receipts for eligible expenses must be included with your application in order for the CAC to meet Revenue Canada requirements for a non-profit organization. Receipts may be attached to this form as .jpgs or .pdfs.

1. Name:
2. Address:
3. Phone number:
4. Email:
5. Institutional affiliation (if any: independent scholars who are members of the Association are eligible to apply):
6. Eligible expense (description; e.g., internet access, books or other research materials, childcare):
7. Eligible expense (amount, up to $250):
8. Which of the objectives of the Association does your expense meet? If necessary, please include a sentence explaining how this expense meets the objectives of the Association:
 - to promote the study of the languages, literatures, history, archaeology, philosophy and, in general, civilizations of the ancient Greek and Roman world, their later influence, and their creative presence in contemporary culture
 - to publish journals and monographs to communicate the findings of scholars in Classics
 - to advance the academic welfare of Classics in CanadaOther (please explain briefly):

(Optional) How has COVID-19 affected your financial or employment situation? This information will help us to target various initiatives of the CAC, including future micro-grants, going forward. We appreciate your candour in this response: